Making the most of your time

September is the time of year when we get back to normal routine after the summer break. It's an opportunity to ask how God wants us to make the most of the time He gives us. Although we can't always choose how we use our time, we can control our attitude towards it. How can we use our time wisely?

Firstly, see time is a gift from God. Each day is an opportunity to know God better and serve Him. Time isn't inexhaustible, as someday our time on earth will end. 'Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.' (Psalm 90:12). The first thing we can do when we awake is thank God for the gift of another day.

Secondly, commit your time to God. Time is not to be wasted, but to be used for God's glory. We are accountable to God for the way that we use our time: 'Be very careful, then, how you live – not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity' (Ephesians 5:15,16). We should ask God to help us organise our time more wisely, to reflect His concerns.

Thirdly, set aside time for God, others and ourselves. How often can we go through a whole day without thinking about God or ignoring someone who needs our help? This is because we relegate God to our spare time, so He ends up at the bottom of our list of priorities. Jesus said, 'Seek first His kingdom and His righteousness' (Matthew 6:33). If we prioritise our time for God, people and our needs, the rest of life will fit around them.

'I have so much to do today that I shall spend the first three hours in prayer.' (Martin Luther).

Methuselah's diet

Methuselah ate what he found on his plate,
And never, as people do now,
Did he note the amount of the calorie count;
He ate because it was chow.
He wasn't disturbed as at dinner he sat,
Devouring a roast or a pie,
To reflect it was full of saturated fat,
Or a couple of vitamins shy.
He cheerfully chewed each species of food,
Unmindful of troubles or fears
Lest his health might be hurt
By some fancy dessert –
And he lived over nine hundred years!

Saint of the Month
9 September
Charles Fuge Lowder, Priest, 1880

Born at Bath in 1820, the son of a banker, and educated at Exeter College, Oxford where he was influenced by the Tractarians, Charles Lowder became one of the best-known 'slum priests' in Victorian London.

Ordained in 1843, he worked initially in the West Country before moving to London to join the staff of St Barnabas, Pimlico at a time of riot and legal prosecution because of the parish's advanced ceremonial practices. While in Pimlico he was involved in the foundation of the Society of the Holy Cross 'to defend and strengthen the spiritual life of the clergy, to defend the faith of the Church, and to carry on and aid Mission work both at home and abroad'. At a time of hostility and persecution the society brought together Ritualist clergy for mutual support, prayer and encouragement.

Inspired to engage in urban mission by reading a life of St Vincent de Paul (see 27 September), Lowder moved across London in 1856 to become curate of St George's in the East, another parish that was to suffer from the mid-Victorian phenomenon of anti-Ritualist rioting because of its style of worship. Lowder's task was to run the St George's Mission in Wapping, one of the worst slum areas of the East End. To him, mission was not a short-lived campaign but a permanent Christian presence in an area where the Church had no foothold and where it would have to earn the respect and confidence of the local people. The mission started with a single room as a base, and progressed in due course to a borrowed iron church. Lowder's residence in their midst greatly endeared him to the local people, to whom he was affectionately known as 'Father Lowder', especially after his efforts on their behalf in the East End cholera outbreak. Eventually the iron church was superseded by a purpose-built brick church for the new parish of St Peter's, London Docks that was carved out of St George's parish, with Lowder as its first vicar in 1866.

Exhausted by his long years of work, Lowder resigned the living of St Peter's in 1880 and retired to Chislehurst. He died soon afterwards and, amidst scenes of obvious grief, large crowds of East Enders attended his funeral to mourn the priest who had served them so selflessly and for so long.

Read the story in Mark 1:1-20

Once there was a man who went out to sow corn. As he scattered the seed in the field some of it fell along the path where it was stepped on and eaten by the birds. Some of it fell on rocky ground, when the plants sprouted they dried up because the soil was dry. Some of the seed fell among thorns which grew up with the plants and choked them, and some seed fell in the good soil; the plants grew and produced corn - a hundred grains each!

When you think about it, Moses was the first one to download files from the cloud, using a tablet!

As Harvest approaches, here the Ven John Barton reflects on just what we do give to God... this article concludes next month, in the October issue.

All things come from You, and of Your own do we ... not give back much!

Soup of the Day, £4.95; roast rump of lamb with vegetables £15.50. Let's forgo pudding, but add a glass of wine, say

£5. Plus tip = Total £28.

That's from the menu on the George & Dragon website. I hear it serves good pub grub. My imaginary meal was £28 for one, £56 for two.

Come to think of it, that's more than I set aside for God's work last week.

On Sunday mornings, at the Offertory, we will hear the Vicar say: 'Yours, Lord, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the splendour, and the majesty; for everything in heaven and on earth is yours.'

And we will reply: 'All things come from You, and of Your own do we give You.'

It's a quote from the Old Testament. King David had been collecting materials to build and decorate God's Temple. He had himself given huge amounts of silver and gold, and all the tribal chiefs had collected contributions from the people. Then there's this surprising comment:

'The people had given willingly to the Lord and they were happy that so much had been given. King David was also extremely happy.'

So giving money away makes you happy!

The story continues with the King, praying aloud to God like this with all the people watching: "Everything in heaven and earth is yours... all riches and wealth come from you... my people and I cannot really give you anything, because everything is a gift from you, and we have only given back what is yours already."

Giving to God is us only giving back what He has given.

How much should we give back to God? The Bible makes reference to setting aside one tenth of our income for God. It's called a tithe. That is, 10%.

Then there is the story of the widow who gave a tiny amount to the Temple in Jerusalem, but it was a real sacrifice because it was all that she had. When Jesus saw it, He said she had given more than rich people.
