Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Happy Easter! I hope you and your family have a joyful Easter Sunday and of course that that joy continues through the Easter Season. The death and resurrection of Jesus are the most important events in history, and we should remain joyful about our salvation through Christ and continue to celebrate as much as we can, and to tell as many people as we can what God has done through Jesus. In fact, every Sunday is a celebration of the resurrection, that's why Sundays are exempt from our Lenten fast. No one wants to fast when we should be celebrating!

The Easter story is amazingly dramatic and involves many different people and characters, friends, enemies, ordinary people, and religious and political leaders. You may even identify with one or other character in the story. Inevitably we think of the disciples and all that they experienced and did after the resurrection. This is a reminder that the story didn't end when Jesus rose from the dead, or even when he ascended into heaven. The story goes on through Pentecost, through history and into our own lives. One of the things that I am constantly thankful for and in awe of is that God through the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us. This is the same Holy Spirit who was in Christ and who came with power at Pentecost. God's own Spirit lives within us. What an amazing truth we have to share! We know these things because we've heard them so often but sometimes and especially during the Easter season, we have a renewed sense of their truth and importance for the world. The same power with which Christ was raised is now living in me and you. That's the point of what Jesus came to teach. We share in the resurrection. We share in that most astonishing and powerful of events. That divine life which still overflows and leads to eternal life and two thousand years ago overcame death is now in us. The first disciples knew this very powerfully and went on to teach and proclaim the message of The Good News. We also believe and share in that message of Good News. It's a message of life and peace, love and hope. It's a message of victory over death and hope over despair. No wonder we celebrate for weeks and weeks after what seems to be 'the main event'.

So, I say again Happy Easter. May you continue to celebrate all year around and may this wonderful season remain full of joy and hope for you and yours.

Yours in Christ,

Revd Denise

Welcome to Saint George's

It's wonderful seeing the number of children attending church increasing.

It doesn't matter if your children wriggle about or move around or make a noise.

It's ok for your child to have a snack in Church, we really don't mind.

If we can help in any way, please let us know.

You can speak to Revd Denise after the service,
or contact her on:

therevd.downen@yahoo.co.uk or 0145732193

Or speak to the warden, Val

Thank you for your continued support of the 200 Club. Subscriptions for 2026 are now due and should be paid to Rose. The cost is £12 for each number you hold for the full year, there are still some numbers available and new members are always welcome. If you would like to join please see Rose Hayward or ring 303 1731.

APCM

Every year we have an APCM where everyone finds out what is going on in our Church. It is where we find out where our money is going, what is going right and what is not going right. It is where everyone can have their say.

It is also where we appoint new PCC members! So if, after reading the article on PCC meetings from Saint Faithful's in the centre of this magazine, you fancy getting involved, we would love to welcome you onto the PCC!

We meet every other month, on the 3rd Tuesday of the month.

This year, we have 5 vacancies – if you fancy giving it a go, and want more information, please have a chat with Val, Chris or Denise.

This year our APCM will be held on 19th April, immediately after the service.

We will then be going to Stamford Golf Club for our annual parish meal – please feel free to bring friends and family along.

Prayers for Peace taken from the Church of England Website

A prayer for good relationships between Christian, Muslim and Jewish people.

O God, we pray for all the children of Abraham in Israel and Palestine and in every country of the world.

We pray for Muslims, Jews and Christians that we will draw on the best of our traditions to guide us away from words and acts of division and discrimination so that everyone may be free to live in safety.

Protect the vulnerable, strengthen the fearful and comfort the grieving.

In Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

A prayer for the conflict currently taking place in the Middle East

God of mercy, look with compassion on all who are affected by the present conflict.

Grant insight to hardened hearts,
comfort to the fearful,
protection to those in danger,
and hope to those who are despairing,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

A prayer taken from 'After the Third Collect' for use at BCP services

O God, who wouldst enfold both heaven and earth in a single peace:

Let the design of thy great love lighten upon the waste of our wraths and sorrows; and give peace to thy Church, peace among nations; peace in our dwellings, and peace in our hearts through thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen

Please use these are any other prayers to pray that God will turn the hearts of world leaders towards peace and negotiation. We pray that God will bring peace to the many places across the world where conflict and war are causing so much senseless suffering.

Revd Denise

Welcome!

We extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, gay, straight or both. Filthy rich, dirt poor or just about average. We especially welcome those who are crying new-borns, energetic toddlers, hyperactive grannies and everything in between.

We welcome you if you can sing like Pavarotti or, like many of us, can't carry a note in a bucket! You're welcome here if you're just browsing, just woke up or just got out of jail. We don't care if you're more Christian than the Archbishop of Canterbury, or you haven't been in a church since little Archie's baptism.

We extend a special welcome to those who are over 60 but not grown up yet, and to teenagers who are growing up too fast. We welcome tired mums, football fanatical dads, starving artists, tree-huggers, latte-sippers, vegetarians and junk-food eaters.

We welcome those who are in recovery or still addicted, and those who have come a long way from what they once were but know they still have a way-to-go. We welcome you if you're having problems or you're down in the dumps or if you don't like 'organised religion', we've been there too!

If you blew all your offering money at the dog track, you're welcome here. If you made your fortune on the stock market, you are too.

We offer a special welcome to those who think the earth is flat, work too hard, don't work, can't spell like the Vicar, or because Gran is in town and wanted to go to church.

We welcome those who are inked, pierced or both. We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, had religion shoved down your throat as a kid or got lost in the traffic and wound up here by mistake. We welcome tourists, seekers and doubters, bleeding hearts ... and you!

News from Robert T Tuxxie

Dear Everyfurr,

My mummy has bought me a new chair to sit on! It is very comfortable. Here is a picture of me looking very elegant sitting on it. It is just the right size for me. I don't have to jump up to get on it and it's just right for watching what goes on in the garden. Thank you, mummy! Mummy says it's not just for me it's for her too and I have to do something called 'share'. Have you heard of 'sharing'? It means I have to let my mummy use my chair as well. Why did she buy it for me, then? She could get her own new chair!

Mummy says if people could share what they have more then there wouldn't be as many people who need things like food or new chairs. She says some people have lots of things but lots of people don't have very many things at all. I have my new chair and my special balls and springs that I like chasing. I even have food but not enough. Maybe when Easter comes I might get some treats and finally have a full tummy. Mummy says I should say 'Thank you' to God for having enough of everything I need and pray for people who don't have enough of what they need. I will do that now.

Yours purfully,

Rober T Tuxxie

Over 123 million Easter eggs will be eaten in the UK over the Easter period, but have you ever wanted to know more about chocolate?

A history of our Easter chocolate

Chocolate. Just a mention of the word can trigger off all kinds of emotions: craving, greed, passion. Few foods have the ability to get such a hold on people. As you buy your Easter eggs and bunnies and whatever else this month, here are some of the facts of chocolate:

Where does chocolate come from?

Chocolate is made from the seeds of the tropical cacao tree, theobroma cacao. The Greek word 'theobroma' means literally 'food of the gods'. The Cacao Tree is found in Latin America.

Who first discovered it?

The Aztecs. The cacao beans were used to prepare a hot, frothy beverage with stimulant and restorative properties, something like hot chocolate.

Who was (probably) the first chocoholic?

The Emperor Montezuma. He drank 50 goblets a day of the frothy drink.

Who used chocolate as currency?

The Aztecs. 100 cacao beans would buy a slave; 12 cacao beans bought the services of a courtesan, etc.

When did chocolate as we know it today begin?

Surprisingly, not until 1879. That year Rodolphe Lindt had the inspired idea of triglyceride cocoa butter. The cocoa butter in chocolate contains saturated fat, but a normal level of consumption doesn't have any bad effects.

At what point does a chocolate lover become a chocoholic?

It is generally considered to be when a person feels impelled to consume 12 or more 60 gram bars of chocolate per week. Chocolate contains its own cannabinoid (a chemical that prolongs pleasurable sensations) and when you eat chocolate, there is an increased blood flow in areas of the brain which are also activated by addictive drugs such as cocaine. But scientists agree that occasional over-indulging will cause no long-term problems... except perhaps around your waistline!

How to get the best from your chocolate:

Keep your chocolate cool (16 – 18 degrees Centigrade) and in a dry, airtight place.

Never put your chocolate in the fridge (if you already have, let it warm to room temperature for a couple of hours before you eat it).

Bring out the full flavour of chocolate by drinking water with it.

If you are drinking tea or coffee, don't bother with expensive chocolates – you won't be able to appreciate them properly!
